George Steiner says, in his book "The Idea of Europe", that Europe is above all a cafe full of people and words where poetry is written, where one plots, where one philosophizes...

The European Evenings of Europe Direct Lleida [<https://europedirect.paeria.cat/>] collect this testimony and become a space for reflection, conversation and debate. A space in which, before the elections to the European Parliament [<https://www.europarl.europa.eu/portal/es>] (June 9), the people of Lleida can hear the voices of experts and representatives of the EU in Catalonia and exchange opinions on the issues that affect us.
