Professor Antoni Blanc [

/sites/CatedraJeanMonnet/en/membres/dr-antoni-blanc-almir/ ] was this Monday at the Teatre Municipal l'Ateneu [ <https://teatremunicipalateneu.cat> ] to hold a session at AUGA [ <https://www.auga.cat> ] about the Union Europe and Brexit. It was a long hour that was understandable, enjoyable and enriching about everything that is the European Union. With a reminder about the slow configuration of the European Community, Antoni Blanc located the beginnings of the Brexit movement and what can happen depending on how this break ends, and the itineraries that are foreseen for England and the other countries of the Community in the near future. The Athenaeum was very full, demonstrating the interest in the subject.
